PART 1. OBJECTIVES & DEFINITIONS

1. NAME

The name of the Club shall be the, "HSV OWNERS CLUB OF W.A. INC", hereinafter referred to as the "Club", "HSV Owners Club of WA" or "HSVOCWA".

2. OBJECTIVES

The HSV Owners Club of WA was established in 1990 forming a strong membership base of enthusiasts with a common interest...the passion for HSV's and indeed V8 Commodores ranging from VBs to the exciting new GEN-F models.

The Club enjoys a variety of motor sport events including: Motorkhanas, Drag Racing (Motorplex); Sprint Events (Barbagallo Raceway & Collie); and Hill Climbs. All our motor sport events culminate towards a Club Championship each year in which all our active members are competitively involved. We also cater for those members who enjoy the social aspect with events such as Cruises, Family Outings and Car Show 'n' Shines being very popular.

Members benefits include:

- Provide an environment of likeminded members with an appreciation of what the Club has to offer
- Provide a variety of events ranging from motorsport to general social events
- Provide members with benefits such as discounts and deals provided by Sponsors and other 3rd Party organisations
- Improve Club Members driving skills and general knowledge of cars

The objectives for which the Club has been established are:

- a) To increase the technical knowledge and driving skills of its members both in a competitive environment and when using the public roads system
- b) To promote and foster the collection, ownership and appreciation of HSV and HDT vehicles
- c) To promote and uphold positive social values, good sportsmanship, and Club camaraderie
- d) To recognize members who have excelled throughout the course of each calendar year in the areas of competitive motorsport, vehicle presentation, and clubmanship

- e) To provide a safe environment for the Club's members to engage in motorsport events of varying kinds, such as; sprints, super sprints, hill climbs, motorkhanas and time trials
- f) To cooperate and liaise with other entities whose objectives are aligned with those of the Club
- g) To be affiliated with the Confederation of Australian Motor Sport, including abiding by their rules and regulations, and those of the Federation Internationale de L'Automobile

PART 3. SERVICE & MEMBERSHIP RECOGNITION

13. SERVICE RECOGNITION

The objective of the Service Recognition Awards is to provide encouragement and to recognise exemplary service to the Club above and beyond attendance and involvement as a regular member. These awards exist to recognise the valuable contribution of individuals to the current and future existence of the Club. In particular, the awards system described below is intended to recognise a wide range of contribution.

- a) Certificate of Appreciation
 - i. This is the minimum award available and is intended to provide encouragement and recognition for members of all categories who have volunteered their services to the Club throughout the course of a calendar year
 - ii. Examples of this award would be; an act or service that has directly improved the standing or ability of the Club to provide services to it's members; a significant donation or gift to the Club; sponsorship of an event
 - iii. This award is made entirely at the discretion of the Committee by way of a majority vote
- b) Presidents Service Award
 - i. This award is to recognise outstanding and exemplary contribution to the Club by an individual during a particular calendar year.

- ii. Examples of this award would be; a significant voluntary, non committee based, contribution to the running or improvement of the Club; motorsport officiating at more than half of the events in one calendar year; holding multiple simultaneous Committee roles during one calendar year; ongoing mentoring and coaching to new or younger members with regards to motorsport and Club etiquette where that act of mentoring or coaching has required significant personal commitment and sacrifice by that individual
- iii. The Committee will provide to the President the names of potential candidates for this award (maximum three). The President will select one member to be the recipient of this award

14. MEMBERSHIP RECOGNITION

Membership Recognition Awards are broken down into the following categories:

- a) Ten Year Membership Medal – Recognition of ten years continuous membership with the Club
- b) Fifteen Year Membership Medal – Recognition of fifteen years continuous membership with the Club
- c) Twenty Year Membership Medal – Recognition of twenty years continuous membership with the Club

15. LIFE MEMBERSHIP RECOGNITION

Life Membership to the Club is the ultimate form of recognition by the Club of an individual. It is awarded not simply for long service but for demonstrated significant or outstanding contributions made in the progress of the goals and objectives of the Club over many years which are clearly recognised, respected, acknowledged and endorsed by all members of the Club:

- a) To qualify for Life Membership to the Club an individual must meet the following criteria:
 - i. Maintained continuous financial Membership with the Club for a period of not less than fifteen years
 - ii. Served on either the Executive and/or General committees for a cumulative total of not less than five years
 - iii. Been awarded at least one Certificate of Appreciation and / or one Presidents Service Award during their membership period
- b) Nomination for Life Membership
 - i. Nominations for Life Membership must be made on the official Life Member nomination form

- ii. The nomination must articulate the reasons why Life Membership is considered appropriate and specify examples of work or involvement which has significantly contributed to the Club
 - iii. A member cannot self nominate
- c) The process for considering applications for Life Members shall be as follows:
- i. Nominations shall be submitted confidentially to the Club Secretary
 - ii. Nominations must reach the Club Secretary no later than the last Committee meeting of the year prior to an awards function.
 - iii. The Life Membership nomination form must be co-signed by at least two financial Members, both of whom must have been members of the Club for five years or more
 - iv. Once having received a valid nomination the Club Secretary must inform the Committee to enable the nomination to be scrutinised at the next available Committee meeting or by the last Committee meeting of the year prior to an awards function
 - v. The Committee will only consider nominations made in the period since the last Annual General Meeting
 - vi. The Secretary shall prepare a report on each nomination summarising the Committees findings and any accompanying substantiation
 - vii. By way of majority vote the Committee will find for or against supporting each nomination
 - viii. The President shall then confer the award of Life Membership on the successful nominee/s at an end of year awards function
 - ix. All persons involved in the Life Membership selection process will keep the process and vote results confidential
- d) Life Membership benefits:
- i. Waiving of all membership fees, including any motorsport or competition levy paid annually, whilst the individual wishes to remain a member
 - ii. Waiving of all cover charges and costs at Club social events
 - iii. Waiving of the entry fee to the first, full daylight sprint event of the Club Championship
 - iv. Inclusion on the Club Honour Role

- v. Notwithstanding Article 15. d) i), ii) and iii) a Life Member shall still be liable for all other event entry fees, levies or costs as set by the Committee from time to time
- e) Forfeiture of Life Membership:

Life Membership is absolutely forfeited upon any failure to observe any by-laws or constitutional requirements and will be forfeited upon the passing of a special resolution for the removal from Life Membership for extreme reasons including but not limited to those described in Article 10 of the Constitution.

PART 4. COMMITTEES

16. POWERS OF THE COMMITTEE

The Committee, comprising both the Executive Committee and the General Committee are tasked with managing the Club on a day to day basis and ensuring its affairs are maintained within the requirements of the Law of Western Australia and Australia and with making decisions that are in the overall best interests of the Club. Specifically;

- k) To do and perform any other act, matters and things in connection with or relative to the management of the Club as shall not by these rules require to be done by the Club in General Meetings
- l) To appoint delegates to sporting bodies and associations with which the Club may from time to time be affiliated with, or as may be required by the rules thereof. Such delegates shall hold office in accordance with the rules of such sporting bodies and associations respectively
- m) Every member of the Committee shall be indemnified against any loss, expenses or liability incurred by reason of any act or deed performed by him/her in good faith on behalf of the Committee and / or Club and the Committee may use the funds of the Club for any such purpose required, together with any reasonable expenses incidental to Committee activities
- n) A member of the Committee who has any direct or indirect pecuniary interest in any matter under contemplation by the Committee, shall, as soon as he/she becomes aware of his/her interest, disclose the nature and extent of such interest to the Committee and shall not take part in any deliberations or decision of the Committee with respect to that matter

17. COMPOSITION & MEMBERSHIP – EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

The Executive Committee consists of the Club's five legal Office-Bearers plus two senior leadership roles. All seven members of this committee shall be elected at the Annual General Meeting of the Club and in accordance with Article 18. The Office Bearer positions shall be comprised of a minimum three Full Members. Ordinary Members are eligible to be elected into any of the Office-Bearer positions to a maximum of two. The Executive Committee is structured as follows:

Office-Bearers of the Club:

- a) President (Life, Full or Ordinary Member)
- b) Vice-President (Life, Full or Ordinary Member)
- c) Secretary (Life, Full or Ordinary Member)
- d) Treasurer (Life, Full or Ordinary Member)
- e) Membership Officer (Life, Full or Ordinary Member)

Non Office Bearing Roles:

- f) Motorsport Manager (Any membership type)
- g) Associate Member Representative (Any membership type)

Each member of the Executive Committee is, subject to these rules, to hold office until the conclusion of the next Annual General Meeting following the date of the member's election, but at their exclusive option may choose to stand for re-election, however the President shall not serve more than three consecutive terms, subject to the following paragraph :

In extenuating circumstances in the event of no candidates being nominated for the position of President, and the existing President has completed three consecutive terms, a further one year extension shall be granted providing the quorum present at the AGM unanimously agrees via show of hands.

In the event of a casual vacancy occurring in the membership of the Executive Committee, the Committee may appoint a member of the Club to fill the vacancy and the member so appointed is to hold office, subject to these rules, until the conclusion of the next Annual General Meeting following the date of their appointment.

18. ELECTION OF MEMBERS TO THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Nominations of candidates for election to the Executive Committee shall occur as follows:

- a) Must be made in writing, signed by 2 members of the Club and accompanied by the written consent of the candidate (which may be endorsed on the form of the nomination)
- b) Must be delivered to the Secretary of the Club at least 14 days before the date fixed for the holding of the Annual General Meeting at which the election is to take place
- c) These nominations shall be read out to the membership at the appropriate time during the Annual General Meeting. The membership shall then vote by way of secret ballot to either accept or reject the nominations at hand
- d) Should there be insufficient nominations, or the nominations submitted in accordance with Article 18. a) & b) are rejected by the ballot process; further nominations for the vacant positions may be called from the AGM's attendees. These nominations may be verbal, must be seconded and must have the consent of the nominee
- e) Once all further nominations have been finalised the membership shall then vote by way of secret ballot to accept or reject the nominations
- f) If insufficient further nominations are received, any vacant positions remaining on the Committee are taken to be casual vacancies

- g) In the matter of election of the President, Vice President, Treasurer and Secretary a fully financial Life Member, Full Member and Ordinary Member has one vote only. Associate Members and Concessional Members are not eligible to vote
- h) In the matter of election of all other Executive Committee positions save those covered in g), fully financial Life, Full, Ordinary and Associate Member's shall be entitled to one vote only. Concessional Members are not eligible to vote.

19. PRESIDENT

The President sets the overall annual committee agenda (consistent with the views of members), helps the committee prioritise its goals and then keeps the committee on track by working within that overall framework. At the operational level, the major function of the President is to facilitate effective committee meetings. Broadly the Presidents duties are:

- a) Chair Committee meetings
- b) Chair the Annual, Special and General meetings
- c) Represent the Club at local, regional, state and national levels to affiliated and governing bodies
- d) Act as a facilitator for Club activities

- d) Notification of upcoming events and issuing of documents (Entry forms, sup regs etc)
- e) Organising event staff as required

23. COMPOSITION & MEMBERSHIP – GENERAL COMMITTEE

The General Committee's function is to assist the Executive Committee with day to day running of the Club. Members of this committee can hold any level of membership within the Club and are appointed to their roles, assuming acceptance, at the direct request of the Executive Committee. Should more than one person apply for a position or the Executive Committee is unable to make a selection then the same voting process should be followed as is used for the election of the Executive Committee. The General Committee may comprise up to a maximum of six members, including the following compulsory roles, plus two optional roles:

- a) Motorsport Event Assistant
- b) Media Officer
- c) Merchandise & Marketing Officer
- d) Social Event Coordinator

- e) Motorsport Results Coordinator

Each member of this committee is, subject to these rules, to hold office until the conclusion of the next Annual General Meeting, following the date of the member's appointment.

In the event of a casual vacancy occurring in the membership of the General Committee, the Executive Committee may appoint a member of the Club to fill the vacancy and the member so appointed is to hold office, subject to these rules, until the conclusion of the next Annual General Meeting following the date of their appointment.

24. APPOINTMENT OF MEMBERS TO THE GENERAL COMMITTEE

Appointment to the roles of the General Committee is to be made as follows;

- a) Appointment is to be by way of "offer" by the Executive Committee and "acceptance" by the appointee
- b) Appointments to the General Committee must be finalised by the Executive Committee no later than 14 days after the Annual General Meeting
- c) If the Executive Committee is unable to fill all the roles on the General Committee, any vacant positions remaining are taken to be casual vacancies and must be filled at the next General Meeting utilising the process described in Article 18

25. CASUAL VACANCIES

For the purposes of these rules, a casual vacancy on the Committee occurs if the member:

- a) Dies
- b) Ceases to be a member of the Club
- c) Becomes an insolvent under administration within the meaning of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth of Australia
- d) Resigns office by notice in writing given to the Secretary
- e) Is removed from office under Article 26 a)
- f) Becomes a mentally incapacitated person
- g) If, without satisfactory explanation, any Committee person shall absent himself from three consecutive Committee meetings, his/her office shall be terminated forthwith unless the disqualification shall be dispensed with on a resolution of the Committee

26. REMOVAL OF A COMMITTEE MEMBER

- a) The Club in General Meeting may by resolution remove any member of the Committee from their office before the expiration of the member's term of office and, may by resolution appoint another person to hold office until the expiration of the term of office of the member so removed
- b) If a member of the Committee to whom a proposed resolution referred to in Article 26 a) relates, makes representations in writing to the Secretary or President (not exceeding a reasonable length) and requests that the representation be notified to the members of the Club, the Secretary or the President may send a copy of the representations to each member of the Club or, if the representations are not so sent, the member is entitled to require that the representations be read out at the meeting at which the resolution is considered
- c) Notwithstanding Article 26 b) if the Club in General Meeting has passed a resolution as defined in Article 26 a) then the Committee Member is deemed to have been removed and must immediately pass over all work in progress, notes, files or information to the appointed caretaker

46. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Terms used in this section :

grievance procedure means the procedures set out in this Division;

party to a dispute includes a person —

- (a) who is a party to the dispute; and
- (b) who ceases to be a member within 6 months before the dispute has come to the attention of each party to the dispute.

The procedure set out in this section (the grievance procedure) applies to disputes —

- (a) between members; or
- (b) between one or more members and the Association.

The parties to a dispute must attempt to resolve the dispute between themselves within 14 days after the dispute has come to the attention of each party.

How grievance procedure is started:

- (1) If the parties to a dispute are unable to resolve the dispute between themselves within the time required by rule 19, any party to the dispute may start the grievance procedure by giving written notice to the secretary of —
 - (a) the parties to the dispute; and
 - (b) the matters that are the subject of the dispute.
- (2) Within 28 days after the Secretary is given the notice, a Committee meeting must be convened to consider and determine the dispute.
- (3) The Secretary must give each party to the dispute written notice of the Committee meeting at which the dispute is to be considered and determined at least 7 days before the meeting is held.
- (4) The notice given to each party to the dispute must state —
 - (a) when and where the Committee meeting is to be held; and
 - (b) that the party, or the party's representative, may attend the meeting and will be given a reasonable opportunity to make written or oral (or both written and oral) submissions to the Committee about the dispute.

- (5) If —
- (a) the dispute is between one or more members and the Association; and
 - (b) any party to the dispute gives written notice to the Secretary stating that the party —
 - (i) does not agree to the dispute being determined by the Committee; and
 - (ii) requests the appointment of a mediator under rule 23, the Committee must not determine the dispute.

21. Determination of dispute by Committee:

- (1) At the Committee meeting at which a dispute is to be considered and determined, the Committee must —
 - (a) give each party to the dispute, or the party's representative, a reasonable opportunity to make written or oral (or both written and oral) submissions to the Committee about the dispute; and
 - (b) give due consideration to any submissions so made; and
 - (c) determine the dispute.
- (2) The Committee must give each party to the dispute written notice of the Committee's determination, and the reasons for the determination, within 7 days after the Committee meeting at which the determination is made.
- (3) A party to the dispute may, within 14 days after receiving notice of the Committee's determination under subrule (1)(c), give written notice to the Secretary requesting the appointment of a mediator under rule 23.
- (4) If notice is given under subrule (3), each party to the dispute is a party to the mediation

Appointment of mediator:

- (1) The mediator must be by agreement between the Member and the Committee; or by agreement between the parties to the dispute.
- (2) The person appointed as mediator by the committee may be a member or former member of the Association but must not —
 - (a) have a personal interest in the matter that is the subject of the mediation; or

- (b) be biased in favour of or against any party to the mediation

Mediation Process:

- (1) The parties to the mediation must attempt in good faith to settle the matter that is the subject of the mediation.
- (2) Each party to the mediation must give the mediator a written statement of the issues that need to be considered at the mediation at least 5 days before the mediation takes place.
- (3) In conducting the mediation, the mediator must —
 - (a) give each party to the mediation every opportunity to be heard; and
 - (b) allow each party to the mediation to give due consideration to any written statement given by another party; and
 - (c) ensure that natural justice is given to the parties to the mediation throughout the mediation process.
- (4) The mediator cannot determine the matter that is the subject of the mediation.
- (5) The mediation must be confidential, and any information given at the mediation cannot be used in any other proceedings that take place in relation to the matter that is the subject of the mediation.
- (6) The costs of the mediation are to be paid by the party or parties to the mediation that requested the appointment of the mediator.
